HOW TO USE YOUR CARD AND ACCESS YOUR ACCOUNT

1. Card Transactions, Purchases, Cash Advances, and Balance Transfers. You may use your User Account and your Card to make a Purchase or obtain a Cash Advance by presenting your Card or your User Account number to participating merchants and establishments where the Card is honored. You may also use your Card to transfer balances from other creditors, to make other transactions by means of a Balance Transfer or for any other transactions that we allow you to make through an introductory or promotional offer, in accordance with the additional terms and conditions that we may offer from time to time. Unless we tell you otherwise, we will also treat any such Balance Transfer or other transaction as a Purchase.

You agree that any debt incurred using your Account or your Card is valid, regardless of the purpose of the Transaction. Purchases from a merchant that are directly convertible to cash (sometimes called "quasi-cash" transactions or "cash equivalent transactions"), such as purchases of casino gaming chips, lottery tickets, money orders, wire transfer services, travelers cheques or foreign currency, may not be permitted with your Card. In the event it is permitted, the quasi-cash or cash equivalent transaction will be treated as a Cash Advance. You may not use your Card or your Account for any illegal transaction or any gambling transaction. We reserve the right to decline any such transaction without notice. "Cash equivalent transactions" are those transactions performed using a merchant or service provider that Mastercard/VISA identifies as a seller of traveler's cheques, foreign currencies, money orders, wire transfers, lottery tickets, funds used for wagers or gambling or similar products and services.

Unless prohibited by Applicable Law, we may, from time to time, limit the type, number and dollar amounts of any Transactions, even if you have sufficient available credit. We may also terminate or suspend your use of your Account and Card and access to your Account without notice unless prohibited by Applicable Law.

2. Credit Limit. The Joint Account Holder may establish credit limits for each User Account and may also limit certain types of Transactions, subject to our approval. Otherwise, we will establish credit limits. You agree not to let the sum of all Transactions posted to a User Account, plus any interest charges, fees and other charges provided for in this Agreement, exceed the Account's credit limit. Account Statements may also show that only part of each credit limit may be used for Cash Advances. We will inform you of your credit limit from time to time. You must keep your User Account balance below your credit limit. The total of the credit limits for User Accounts may not exceed the total credit limit for the Account. If you do not, you must still pay us. We may designate part of your credit limit as a cash advance limit. We may increase or decrease your credit limit or your Cash Advance limit at any time, without notice. Your available credit may not be restored for up to 7 days after we receive your payment.

3. Unauthorized Use. You must notify us immediately and assist us in our investigation if your Card is lost or stolen or you believe someone is using your Account or a Card without your permission. If you notice the loss or theft of your Card or a possible unauthorized use of your Card or Account, you should contact us immediately by calling us at 888-999-3304, or writing to us at PO Box 2698, Alpharetta, GA 30023. You may be liable for the unauthorized use of your Card(s) or PIN(s). You will not be liable for unauthorized use that occurs after you notify us of the loss, theft or possible unauthorized use of your Card(s) or PIN(s) and in any case, your liability for unauthorized use will not exceed $50.00 (in NY, you will have no liability for unauthorized use of the Card(s) or PIN(s) prior to the Effective Date). You agree that unauthorized use does not include use by a person to whom you have given authority to use the Account or Card(s) or PIN(s) and that you will be liable for all use by such a person.

4. Third-Party Claims or Defenses. We are not responsible if a third-party refuses to accept or honor your Card or Account, even if you have sufficient available credit. Except as required by Applicable Law, we will not be responsible for any claim or defense you may have against any third party that arises out of or in connection with any Transaction with your Account or Card or any services or goods or other property purchased or leased using your Account or Card.

PAYING YOUR BILLS

5. Periodic Account Statements. Except as otherwise stated in this Agreement, we will send you an Account Statement to each User at the User's address as it appears on our records with respect to Transactions incurred by such User. Unless you make other arrangements with us, your Account Statement will be mailed to you by regular mail or electronically delivered to your address as it appears on our records. We will send your Account Statement for each Billing Cycle at the end of which your User Account has a debit or credit balance in excess of $1.00 or on which an interest charge has been imposed. Generally, you will receive 12 Account Statements each year your User Account is open. We will not send Account Statements if (a) we deem your Account uncollectible; (b) delinquency collection proceedings have been instituted; or (c) for any other reason permitted by Applicable Law. Each Account Statement will show all Transactions incurred by the User that may have been posted to the User Account since the last Account Statement, any payments and adjustments, any interest charge assessed for Transactions, any fees charged, the New Balance, the credit limit and Available Credit Limit, the Minimum Payment Due and the Payment Due Date.

6. Payment Instructions: We credit your payments in accordance with the terms on your Account Statement. If you mail your payment to an address other than the payment address shown on your Account Statement, there may be a delay in crediting the payment to your Account. We can accept late payments, partial payments or payments marked "payment in full," or with any other restrictive endorsement, without losing any of our rights under this Agreement. You must pay us in U.S. dollars in funds on deposit in the U.S. If your payment does not meet the above requirements, there may be a delay in crediting your Account. This may result in late fees and additional interest charges. We will not accept a payment made in a foreign currency or a payment drawn on an account at a bank located outside of the U.S. We may also charge you the costs we incurred to collect the funds and we may select the currency conversion rate.

7. Minimum Payment Due. Your payment is due on or before the Payment Due Date shown on your Account Statement. You must pay at least the Minimum Payment Due shown on your Account Statement on a monthly basis, which will be the greater of (a) 5% of the New Balance, or (b) $35.00. Any New Balance less than $35 is payable in full. The Minimum Payment Due shown on your Account Statement will also include any amount past due and any amount by which your Account exceeds its credit limit.

Although we may post payments as of the date we receive them, your Available Credit Limit may not be restored for up to 7 days after we receive your payment.

8. How We Apply Payments. Your Account may have balances with different interest rates. For example, purchases may have a lower interest rate than Balance Transfers. If your Account has balances with different interest rates here is how we generally apply payments in a Billing Cycle. We apply payments at our discretion. This may result in balances at lower APRs being paid before other balances. This may also result in higher interest charges.

9. Automatic Billing. You may set up automatic billing with a merchant. If your Account Number or expiration date changes, you authorize us to provide the merchant with this information at our discretion. To stop automatic billing, you must contact the merchant directly.

10. Prepayment. You may pay without penalty any portion of the entire New Balance or more than your Minimum Payment Due before the Payment Due Date. You understand that by making a prepayment, the total amount you owe us will be reduced but that you must pay the Minimum Payment Due in successive Billing Cycles as reflected in your Account Statement.

DETERMINATION OF INTEREST CHARGES

11. Daily Periodic Rate. We determine the Daily Periodic Rate by dividing the applicable APR by 365 (366 if a leap year).

12. Annual Percentage Rate (APR). APR for Purchases, Balance Transfers and Cash Advances. The Additional Terms disclose the APR for Purchases, Balance Transfers and Cash Advances in effect when your Account is opened.

13. Balance Subject to Interest Charge Interest Charge Calculation. We impose interest on each User Account using the average daily balance method (including new transactions). To calculate interest, we first calculate a separate daily balance for each balance on your User Account. (For example, current purchases, balance transfers, cash advances, and different promotional balances. Your balances are shown on your Account Statement.) To calculate the average daily balance, we take the beginning cash balance of your account each day, add any new cash advances, and subtract any payments, credits, non-accruing fees, and unpaid Interest Charges. We add any new transactions, interest, or fees and subtract any new credits or payments allocated to that balance and make other adjustments.

We treat a daily balance less than zero as a balance of zero. We add a transaction to the daily balance as of the transaction date.

We add a transaction fee to the same balance as the transaction.

We generally add other fees to the current purchase balance. For each balance, we add up all the daily balances and divide by the number of days in the billing cycle. This gives us the Average Daily Balance for that balance. To calculate the total interest for each balance, we then multiply the Average Daily Balance by its Daily Periodic Rate and the number of days in the billing cycle. The daily periodic rate equals the APR divided by 365 (366 if a leap year). You authorize us to round interest charges to the nearest cent.

We may use mathematical formulas that produce equivalent results to calculate the Average Daily Balance, interest charges and related amounts.

14. Determining your Variable APRs. We will calculate the APRs Purchases, Balance Transfers, and Cash Advances by adding the applicable margin for those Transactions to the Prime Rate. (A "margin" is the percentage we add to the Prime Rate to calculate the APR.) These APRs will not exceed 29.99% (corresponding Daily Periodic Rate of 0.08216%). Any increase or decrease in the Prime Rate will result in an increase or decrease in your Daily Periodic Rate and the APR, and as a result, the interest charge and the Minimum Payment Due will change and may result in a smaller part of your payment being applied to reduce principal. Your APRs will vary with the market based on the Prime Rate. The Prime Rate that applies in a Billing Cycle is the highest bank prime loan rate as published by the Wall Street Journal in its Money Rates Section on the 10th day (or the next business day, if the 10th is not a business day) of the calendar month preceding the first day of that Billing Cycle. If the periodic Rate(s) and corresponding APRs increase, your interest charges will increase and your minimum payment may be greater.

15. Interest-Free Period (also called Grace Period) on Purchases. We will not charge you any interest on Purchases on a User Account if you always pay in full the New Balance shown on the Account Statement for your Current Billing Cycle by the Payment Due Date. Specifically, you will not pay interest for an entire Billing Cycle on Purchases if you paid in full the two (2) previous New Balance amounts on your User Account by their respective Payment Due Dates; otherwise, each Purchase begins to accrue interest on its transaction date or the first day of the Billing Cycle, whichever date is later. An interest charge will be imposed on Balance Transfers and Cash Advances from the Transaction date and included in the average daily balance of Balance Transfers and Cash Advances at the applicable APR for Balance Transfers and Cash Advances until the date payment in full is posted to your User Account. There is no grace period or time period within which to pay and avoid an interest charge on Balance Transfers and Cash Advances.

16. Interest Charges. The total interest charge for a User Account for a Billing Cycle is the sum of the interest charges for Purchases, Balance Transfers and Cash Advances. To compute the periodic rate portion of interest charges for your Current Billing Cycle, we multiply the Average Daily Balance of each type of your Transactions in the Current Billing Cycle by the applicable Daily Periodic Rates for that cycle. Fees for Balance Transfers, Cash Advances, and International Transactions, if any, are added to and included in the total interest charges for your Current Billing Cycle.

17. Changes to Rates. Subject to Applicable Law, we may change the Daily Periodic Rate and corresponding APR for Purchases, Balance Transfers and Cash Advances if we, in our sole discretion and from time to time, decide to take such action subject to applicable law.

18. Introductory Purchase, Balance Transfer and Promotional APR Offers. At our discretion, we may offer you an introductory or promotional APR for all or a part of your Transactions. For example, we may offer you a promotional APR that applies to specific transactions, such as transferring balances from accounts you have with others, or an introductory APR for Purchases when you open an Account. The period for which the introductory or promotional APR applies may be limited. Any introductory or promotional APR offer will be subject to the terms of the offer and this Agreement. If applicable, we will disclose information regarding any introductory or promotional APRs and the period during which they are in effect in the document that accompanies your Card or in materials we send you about the offer after you card your Card. If (i) we receive a Minimum Payment Due after its Payment Due Date; (ii) your total outstanding balance exceeds your Account credit limit on the closing date of a Billing Cycle; or (iii) (A) a check, similar instrument or electronic payment order that you have used for payment on your Account has been returned to us unpaid for any reason, or (B) we must return a check or other instrument because it is not signed or is otherwise incomplete, we may adjust the APR to the Purchase or Balance Transfer APR then in effect, as applicable.

19. Minimum Interest Charge. If we charge interest on a User Account, the minimum interest charge will be $1.50.

20. Fees.
Balance Transfer Fee. Unless your offer indicates otherwise, we will assess an interest charge in the form of a balance transfer fee in the amount set forth in the Additional Terms.
Annual Fee. Certain cards have an annual fee. If your Card has an annual fee, the amount of the annual fee is disclosed in the Additional Terms. This fee is assessed for the use of the Account and associated services, and will be identified as a fee on your Account Statement after the first Billing Cycle after you open your Account and annually thereafter.
Cash Advance Fee. We will assess an interest charge in the form of a Cash Advance fee in the amount set forth in the Additional Terms.
Late Payment Fee. If you do not pay the Minimum Payment Due by the Payment Due Date, we will charge you a late fee in the amount set forth in the Additional Terms. This fee will not exceed the amount permitted by law.

Return Check Fee. If any payment is returned unpaid by your financial institution for insufficient funds or any other reason, we will charge you a return check fee in the amount set forth in the Additional Terms. This fee will not exceed the amount permitted by law.

International Transaction Fee. There is an interest charge in the form of a transaction fee equal in the amount set forth in the Additional Terms.

Expedited Card Delivery Fee. There is a delivery fee in the amount set forth in the Additional Terms if delivery of your Card is expedited.

- 21. Foreign Currency Transactions. If a Transaction is made in a foreign currency, we and Mastercard, will convert the Transaction into a U.S. dollar amount. Mastercard will act in accordance with its operating regulations or conversion procedures in effect at the time the Transaction is processed. Currently, its regulations and procedures provide that the currency conversion rate used is either: (1) a wholesale market rate, or (2) a government-mandated rate in effect one day prior to the processing date. The currency conversion rate calculated in this manner that is in effect on the processing date may differ from the rate in effect on the transaction date or the posting date.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

22. Accepting this Agreement. This Agreement will be effective on the date you use, or someone you authorized uses, the Card or the Account, whichever is earlier. You agree that by using the Account or the Card, or otherwise accepting the Account or the Card, you accept the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

23. Promise to Pay. If you are a User, you promise to pay us all amounts due on your User Account, now and in the future. You also promise to pay us for all Transactions made on your User Account, including Transactions which exceed any Credit Limit, and you agree to pay any fees, interest charges or other charges due under this Agreement on the User Account. The Business and the Joint Account Holder promise, individually and together, to pay us all amounts due on the Account (including each User Account), now and in the future, even if only one of you or one of your Users uses the Account or benefits from that use. The Business and the Joint Account Holder promise, individually and collectively, to pay us for all Transactions made on the Account (including, without limitation, amounts owed under User Accounts), including Transactions which exceed any credit limit, and even if the User does not agree to pay, or in fact fails to pay, the amounts owed under a User Account. The Business and the Joint Account Holder agree, individually and collectively, to pay any fees, interest charges or other charges due under this Agreement or the Account incurred by any User.

24. Your Responsibility. You are responsible for all Transactions and other amounts posted to your User Account (and, for the Business and the Joint Account Holder, posted on the Account) arising from the authorized use of your Account or Card. If you have authorized another person to use your Account or Card in any way, we will deem your authorization to include the authorization to make Transactions of any kind using your Account or Card and to incur related fees and charges. We will also deem your authorization to continue until you revoke it by preventing that person from using your Account or Card. We are not responsible for controlling any User or any other person whom you have asked us to add to your Account or someone you let use your Account or Card. You should think carefully before allowing anyone to become an authorized user on your Account because you are allowing that person to use the Account as you can. If you wish to remove any User's or other such person's ability to use your Account or any Card, you must notify us in writing. This notice will not be effective until we receive and have had a reasonable opportunity to act on it. Each User Account may be used only by the User to whom it is issued or who is authorized to use it, as the case may be, and may not be transferred to another User or any other person or entity. However, you will still be responsible for use by another person if you authorize it in violation of this Agreement.

OUR RIGHTS AND HOW THEY AFFECT YOU

25. Delays in Enforcement. We can delay enforcing or not enforce any of our rights under this Agreement without losing our right to enforce them in the future. For example, we may accept late payments or payments that are marked "payment in full" or with other restrictive endorsements without losing any of our rights under this Agreement.

26. Termination. Subject to Applicable Law, we may terminate this Agreement or revoke your right to use your Account (including any User Account) or Card, along with your right to make future Transactions, at any time and for any reason without notice to you. You or anyone you authorized to use the Card or Account may terminate your Account and use of your Card at any time by calling us at 888-999-3304, or writing to us at Credit Card Services, PO Box 2698, Alpharetta, GA 30023. Any request to terminate your Account will be effective after we have had a reasonable opportunity to act on such request. The termination of this Agreement, whether initiated by us or you, will not affect any of your or our rights and obligations under this Agreement. If this Agreement is terminated, you must still repay any amounts you owe us, even if we allow a Transaction to be completed with your Account or Card after this Agreement has been terminated. You agree to give to us or to destroy all of the Cards issued on your Account when we ask you to or when this Agreement is terminated. If someone attempts to use a Card after this Agreement is terminated, the Card may be retained.

27. Default. Subject to Applicable Law, your Account will be in default under this Agreement if any one of the following occurs: (a) you become generally unable to pay your debts, (b) you die or are declared legally incompetent, (c) you use a check or instrument for payment that is dishonored, (d) you fail to pay the Minimum Payment Due on or before your Payment Due Date with respect to any User Account, (e) any other creditor tries by legal process to take money of yours in our possession, (f) a petition is filed or other proceeding is commenced by or against you under the federal bankruptcy act or any other applicable federal or state insolvency laws, (g) you provide us with any false or misleading information, (h) you breach any of your other obligations under this Agreement, (i) you exceed your Account credit limit, (j) you are in default of any other credit agreement you have with us or any of our affiliates, or (k) we believe in good faith that you may not pay or perform your obligations under this Agreement. The payment of any fee charged by us will not cure the default that caused the fee.

28. Our Additional Rights When You Are in Default. If your Account is in default under this Agreement, we may, subject to Applicable Law, (a) require you to pay any portion of your outstanding Account balance immediately, (b) allow you to repay your Account subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, (c) immediately terminate your Account and cancel all Cards, (d) reduce your Account credit limit or otherwise limit your ability to make Transactions as discussed in this Agreement, (e) commence a legal proceeding against you to collect all amounts owed in connection with this Agreement, or (f) increase the APR for Purchases and Cash Advances. You agree to pay all reasonable costs, including attorney's fees, that we incur to collect amounts you owe. We will not be obligated to honor any attempted use of your Card or your Account if your Account is in default, or we have decided to terminate your Account or limit your ability to make Transactions as discussed in this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement, interest charges will continue to accrue at the APR in effect at the time of default until your total Account balance, including such accrued interest charges, is paid in full. You agree that, subject to Applicable Law, if your Account is in default under this Agreement, you will accept calls from us at your home and your place of business regarding collection of your Account. You understand and agree that the calls to your home may be automatically dialed and a recorded message may be played. By using a Card, each User is deemed to have agreed to accept calls from us at home or at the User's place of business with respect to such User's Card and collection of the User Account. You agree such calls will not be considered "unsolicited" calls or telemarketing calls for purposes of state or federal law.

29. Credit Reports. You agree that we will obtain credit reports about you, investigate your ability to pay, and obtain information about you from other sources including information to verify and re-verify your employment and income. And you agree that we will use such information for any purposes (for example, marketing to you or evaluating you for a new account), subject to Applicable Law.

You agree that we may give information about the Account to credit reporting agencies. We may tell a credit reporting agency if you fail to comply with any term of this Agreement. This may have a negative impact on your credit report. If you believe information we have given to a credit reporting agency is incorrect, write to us at: PO Box 2698, Alpharetta, GA 30023. When you write to us, tell us the specific information you believe is incorrect.

30. Reevaluation of Financial Condition and Credit History. We may reevaluate your financial condition and investigate any information you provided on your Account application at any time. While doing so, we may obtain a current credit report and ask you for additional information about your financial condition by completing a personal financial statement or such other form that we request from time to time. You give us your permission to obtain any information about you that we believe would be beneficial to facilitate our determination of your eligibility for the Account and the Card, including credit reports from consumer reporting agencies. We may, as a result of any such re-evaluation, (i) increase your credit limit; (ii) decrease your credit limit; or (iii) deem your Account to be in default.

ARBITRATION AND JURY TRIAL WAIVER

35. You and we each agree that any Claim will be arbitrated instead of litigated in court under the circumstances and procedures set forth below. Any Claim will be resolved upon the election of arbitration by you or us pursuant to this provision and the American Arbitration Association (AAA) Rules in effect at the time the Claim is filed. (If for any reason the AAA is unable or unwilling or ceases to serve as arbitration administrator, another nationally recognized arbitration organization utilizing similar rules and procedures will be substituted by us.) With respect to Claims covered by this provision, a party who has asserted a Claim in a lawsuit in court may elect arbitration with respect to any Claim subsequently asserted in that lawsuit by any other party or parties. IF ARBITRATION IS CHOSEN BY ANY PARTY WITH RESPECT TO A CLAIM, NEITHER YOU NOR WE WILL HAVE THE RIGHT TO LITIGATE THAT CLAIM IN COURT OR HAVE A JURY TRIAL ON THAT CLAIM, OR TO ENGAGE IN PREARBITRATION DISCOVERY EXCEPT AS PROVIDED FOR IN THE AAA RULES. FURTHER, YOU WILL NOT HAVE THE RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE AS A REPRESENTATIVE OR MEMBER OF ANY CLASS OF CLAIMANTS PERTAINING TO ANY CLAIM SUBJECT TO ARBITRATION. EXCEPT AS SET FORTH BELOW, THE ARBITRATOR'S DECISION WILL BE FINAL AND BINDING. NOTE THAT OTHER RIGHTS THAT YOU WOULD HAVE IF YOU WENT TO COURT MAY ALSO NOT BE AVAILABLE IN ARBITRATION.

The AAA Rules and forms of the AAA may be obtained by calling 800-778-7879 or by visiting the AAA's Web site at www.adr.org. All Claims must be filed at any AAA office.

There will be no authority for any Claims to be arbitrated on a class action basis. Any arbitration hearing that you attend will take place in the federal judicial district in which you reside. At your written request, we will temporarily advance up to $500 towards the filing, administrative and/or hearing fees for any Claim that you may file against us after you have paid an amount equivalent to the fee, if any, for filing such a Claim in state or federal court (whichever is less) in the judicial district in which you reside. At the conclusion of the arbitration, the arbitrator will decide who will ultimately be responsible for paying the filing, administrative and/or hearing fees in connection with the arbitration. Unless inconsistent with Applicable Law, each party will bear the expense of that party's attorneys', experts' and witness fees, regardless of which party prevails in the arbitration.

This provision is made pursuant to a transaction involving interstate commerce and will be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (FAA), 9 U. S. C. §§ 1 et seq., as amended. The arbitrator will apply applicable substantive law consistent with the FAA, and applicable statutes of limitations and will honor claims of privilege recognized at law. Judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. The arbitrator's decision will be final and binding, except for any right of appeal provided by the FAA and except that, if the amount in controversy exceeds $100,000, any party can appeal the award to a three-arbitrator panel administered by the AAA, which will reconsider de novo any aspect of the initial award requested by the appealing party. The decision of the panel will be by majority vote. The costs of such an appeal will be borne by the appealing party regardless of the outcome of the appeal.

As solely used in this provision, the terms we and us will for all purposes mean Fifth Third Bank, National Association, all of its parents, wholly- or majority-owned subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, successors and assigns, and all of their independent contractors, agents, employees, directors and representatives.

This provision will survive termination of your Account, as well as the repayment of all outstanding amounts incurred in connection with this Agreement. If any portion of this provision is deemed invalid or unenforceable under any law or statute consistent with the FAA, it will not invalidate the remaining portions of this arbitration provision or the Agreement. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the AAA Rules and this arbitration provision, this provision will govern.
